

Winterfest 2023

The Zurich Hash House Harriers bring you the highest concentration of factual information within this Info Flyer!

Consider this to be the single source of unchangeable truth for all that you need to know for this year's Zurich H3 Winterfest. Everything you will possibly need to know can be found within these pages to arrive safely and prepared for the following:

- 3 official trails, plus one for those who don't mind a frostbitten pecker
- Absolutely epic home made meals to warm you from the inside
- All the Beer/Wine/Bubbles/Cider/yellow snow you can drink
- 1 drunken Friday Meet and Greet, free lube and tunes provided
- 1 Winterolympdicks 2023! With prizes to win!!! (mostly bragging rights for years to cum)
- 1 even more drunken Saturday themed night party
 - Theme: "Cock and Dazzle". Show off the cockiest or the dazziest side of yourself! Your imagination is your only limitation. (off limits → Full Body Picklesuits, due to past traumatic events)
- A heated venue for a maximum of 40 people!

03-05 February, 2023 (Rego starts at 17:00)

Pfadizentrum Uster, Winiker Pünteweg 10, 8610 Uster, Switzerland

Use publicly available information on how to get there, preferably by train/bus.

YES, we have limited parking for free for 5 cars, if you're coming from Zurich please use public transportation options so parking can be prioritized for our visiting friends from afar. Note the below for more information on the parking situation incl. paid parking options:

What should I bring?

Bedding: A sleeping bag/blanket. The venue provides a pillow and sheets. Cover your body with what you feel comfortable with.

Drinking Vessel: Something you're fine consuming liquids out of.

Other important items: A Flashlight/torch to light the way on all nightly outings, a towel, some ear plugs (or other snore suppressors), your preferred hangover cure, AND house shoes.

Dog owners: Bring a dedicated towel for your dogs to clean them before getting into any inside common areas.

Things to leave at home: Your dignity, hope, fear of snow and sobriety.
